Fifth Sunday in Ordinary Time Today we look at the vocations of Isaiah, St Paul and St Peter. They are called in strange circumstances. They each recognise their unworthiness but have the assurance that God will be with them. Through our Baptism we also are called to build God's kingdom.

*Beloved Lord, breathe calm in my mind, peace in my heart, and silence in my soul.
In the silence let me hear your voice,
In the peace let me see your face.
In the calm let me know your love.
May Christ, who cared for those in need and healed those who were ill, care for you and bring you healing.*

"Health is a crown worn by those who are well and seen only by the sick"

St Joseph's Church Roof Repair Works Our Architect has advised that the design for the roof splice piece has now been completed. This will be manufactured and shipped to our builder within the next two weeks. On receipt of this piece the builder will commence the repair works.

The Pope's Intentions – February For Vocations to the Priesthood and Religious Life. Let us pray that the ecclesial community might welcome the desires and doubts of those young people who feel a call to serve Christ's mission in the priesthood and religious life.

St. Bernadette Reflection

"If one dream should fall and break into a thousand pieces,
Never be afraid to pick one of those pieces up and begin again.
That's the beauty of being alive,
We can always start all over again.
Enjoy God's amazing opportunities bestowed on us.
Have faith in Him always."
